Native Plant Society of Texas - Houston Chapter Presents:

WILDCAPES WORKSHOP & NATIVE PLANT SALE (REINVENTED)
LANDSCAPING WITH NATIVE PLANTS TO ATTRACT WILDLIFE

WILDCAPES WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Registration for Wildscapes begins August 1, 2020.
$12 Registration provides a
  - Link to join four online Zoom presentations and
  - Earlybird plant shopping on Saturday, Sept. 12.
See www.npsot.org/Houston/Wildscapes for more information

Zoom Live Presentation Schedule (connections open at 6:30 pm, presentation at 7:00 pm):

Tuesday, September 1, 7:00 pm
Ben Pfeiffer
of Firefly Conservation & Research
“Fireflies of Texas: A Look At Texas’ Remarkable Bioluminescent Diversity”

Thursday, September 3, 7:00 pm
Jaime González
of The Nature Conservancy
“Houston Grows Cooler: Heat mapping and Restoration of Urban Forest to Fight Climate Change”

Tuesday, September 8, 7:00 pm
Mary Carol Edwards
of Green Star Wetland Plant Farm
“Encountering Wetland Plants that Thrive in Challenging Gardens (like yours!”

Thursday, September 10, 7:00 pm
Mark Morgenstern
of Morning Star Prairie Plants
“Native Plants of South East Texas”

Online Native Plant and Book Sale Sept.12-13
  - Earlybird sale starts 9:00 am Saturday, Sept. 12 for registrants only
  - Sale open to the public Sunday, Sept.13.

Plant/Book Pickup Sept. 19-20
  - Houston Permit Center, 1002 Washington Ave (near Houston Ave, next to downtown)
  - Saturday noon—6:00 pm; Sunday 9 am —1:00 pm.
  - A link will be sent to purchasers to sign up for a pickup time