I, ________________________________, do hereby release the Native Plant Society of Texas and any person or persons responsible for planning the meetings, workshops, or field trips of all liability associated with my participation in the ________________________________ sponsored by the Native Plant Society of Texas.

Further, I understand that in any event involving activities in nature there is a certain risk of injury. The Native Plant Society of Texas has given me warning that the events they are sponsoring may involve climbing, hiking, etc. and I have taken into account my own physical condition prior to my participation in these activities.

________________________________________
Signature of Participant

_____________________________________
Date

NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY OF TEXAS
RELEASE OF LIABILITY FORM

I, ________________________________, do hereby release the Native Plant Society of Texas and any person or persons responsible for planning the meetings, workshops, or field trips of all liability associated with my participation in the ________________________________ sponsored by the Native Plant Society of Texas.

Further, I understand that in any event involving activities in nature there is a certain risk of injury. The Native Plant Society of Texas has given me warning that the events they are sponsoring may involve climbing, hiking, etc. and I have taken into account my own physical condition prior to my participation in these activities.

________________________________________
Signature of Participant

_____________________________________
Date